

THE HOLT COUNTY SENTINEL.

VOLUME XVI.

OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, JANUARY 7, 1881.

NO. 31.

EXPLANATORY.

This issue of the SENTINEL is rendered necessary by a combination of annoying circumstances.

More than a month ago we ordered from the Photo-Engraving Company of New York a new head for this paper, to be used at the time of its enlargement. The order was made early enough to allow ample time for its preparation, and we expected to receive it ten days ago. But the engravings of this Company are made by a recently patented process, in which photographic chemicals are largely used; and the late cold "blizzard" which prevailed throughout the country was so extreme in New York as to almost stop the business of the above named firm. In response to letters and telegrams they inform us that it was simply impossible for them to complete the head during the recent, extremely cold weather, but that they will positively send it by express on January 5th. It cannot possibly reach us before Friday afternoon; it will probably be here on Saturday afternoon; and it may be delayed till Monday afternoon. Meanwhile, all our preparations have been made to issue the enlarged paper this week; column rules have been cut, and the paper "made up" in its new form, etc., etc. But the SENTINEL contains a number of legal advertisements, about which there may be trouble should there be any protracted delay in its publication. Hence, under the circumstances, we are compelled to send forth this little sheet. It is numbered and dated and fills the requirements of the law as a full issue of the SENTINEL.

The big SENTINEL will make its appearance as soon as we receive the head for it—probably on Saturday afternoon and possibly on Friday afternoon—and will be worth waiting for. Meanwhile be satisfied with this. The delay annoys us far more than it possibly can any one else.

—Misses Carrie Anderson and Susie Miller, who are attending Lindenwood Female College at St. Charles, spent the holidays with their parents in this city and returned to St. Charles on Tuesday.

—Miss Minnie Greer, of Macon county, has been visiting Oregon friends during the past few days.

—Cave Hunt was made happy last Friday by the birth of a fine girl.

—J. R. Dobyns, of St. Joseph, spent several days this week in Oregon.

—Rev. Mr. Miller will preach at New Point next Sabbath, morning and evening.

—Services in Presbyterian Church in this city every evening this week, and will probably be continued next week.

—Elder Maupin is holding a series of meetings in Corning, Kansas. He will begin a series of meetings in Oregon in about two weeks.

—Through misinformation we announced last week that the County Court would meet on Monday. This is an error. There will be a special term of County Court next Monday.

—Dr. Goslin left for Chicago on Tuesday, to be absent about a month. During his absence he will visit the hospitals and attend lectures and brighten up generally.
